

Subscription Options

250 dollars a month gives the local access to:

- Unlimited legal advice via email and phone
- Unlimited review of arbitration briefs, grievances, and other filings with comments and suggestions
- Unlimited representation in mid-term bargaining
- Unlimited witness prep assistance for arbitration or other cases
- Representation for up to 5 Weingarten meetings a month for union members

450 dollars a month gives the local access to:

- Unlimited legal advice via email and phone
- Unlimited review of arbitration briefs, grievances, and other filings (MSPB, DABs, EEOC, etc) with comments and suggestions
- Unlimited representation in mid-term bargaining
- Unlimited witness prep assistance for arbitration or other cases
- Representation for up to seven Weingarten meetings a month for union members
- Drafting, filing, and prosecution of up to five contractual or administrative grievances a month through step three or the equivalent final step (arbitration would be an additional cost)

1000 dollars a month gives the local access to:

- Unlimited legal advice via email and phone.
- Unlimited review of arbitration briefs, grievances, and other filings (including MSPB, DABs, EEOC, etc.) with detailed comments and suggestions.
- Unlimited representation in mid-term bargaining sessions.
- Unlimited witness preparation assistance for arbitration or other cases.
- Representation in up to twelve "Weingarten" meetings per month for union members.

This includes any meeting where the member reasonably believes that discipline could result.

- Drafting, filing, and prosecution of up to five contractual or administrative grievances per month, through step three or the equivalent final step.

Arbitration remains an additional cost.

- Representation in the reply process for proposed disciplinary actions for up to five members per month.

Any appeal to an outside body, such as the MSPB or EEOC, will require an individual contract with the member. Union members will receive discounted contingency fee rates for any such appeal.

- Representation in up to three fact-finding investigations/meetings conducted by the Agency into a union member per month.

2000 dollars a month gives the local access to:

- Unlimited legal advice via email and phone.
- Unlimited review of arbitration briefs, grievances, and other filings (including MSPB, DABs, EEOC, etc.) with detailed comments and suggestions.
- Unlimited representation in mid-term bargaining sessions.
- Unlimited witness preparation assistance for arbitration or other cases.
- Unlimited representation for union members in “Weingarten” meetings.
This includes any meeting where the member reasonably believes that discipline could result.
- Drafting, filing, and prosecution of up to seven contractual or administrative grievances per month, through step three or the equivalent final step.
Arbitration remains an additional cost.
- Unlimited representation in the reply process for proposed disciplinary actions against any union member. This includes anything from a reprimand to a proposed removal.
Any appeal to an outside body, such as the MSPB or EEOC, will require an individual contract with the member. Union members will receive discounted contingency fee rates for any such appeal.
- Representation in up to five fact-finding investigations/meetings conducted by the Agency into a union member per month.
- Attendance at local membership meetings or lunch and learns at request, not to exceed two appearances a month.
- A standing meeting with the attorney scheduled at the Local’s convenience. This could be weekly, bi-weekly, or monthly.

Note: All subscription levels receive discounted contingency fee representation for EEO cases referred on behalf of members